V. Introduce Yourself

Please attach a brief essay (between 750 and 2000 words) that will serve as your introduction to the members of the Honors Council. You may wish to write about such things as your favorite secondary school class, what you hope to achieve as an Honors Program participant, or some idea that has captivated your attention. The decision about the subject matter will be your own; however, you should craft your essay to let the members of the Honors Council have some insight into your enthusiasms, your ideals, and your goals.

I attest that the information I have provided in this application is complete and accurate. Further, I understand that if I am found to have misrepresented myself or my accomplishments my application will be dismissed and/or I will be dismissed from the Honors Program itself. In addition, misrepresentation of myself in this application will result in my forfeiture of any financial aid I may receive from the Honors Program.
