

Honors Program

Knobview Hall 235

Phone: (812) 941-2196

Web Site: www.ius.edu/honors

Honors Program Director: Angela M. Salas, Ph.D.

Honors Program Assistant: Rebekah Dement Farmer

Working Motto: Nurture the Intellect

Honors Programs

The Honors Programs at IU Southeast provides students with opportunities to experience the challenge and reward of enhanced honors programming.

Honors Program	Description
University Honors Minor	The University Honors Minor is designed for students in their first two years of college. Requirements for the completion of the minor include four honors courses and the completion of an honors project. Students seeking the University Honors Minor should take HON-H 103 and HON-H 104 as well as two other honors courses of their choice.
University Honors Scholar	The University Honors Scholar program is designed for students in the final two years of college. Requirements for the completion of the program include two honors courses and an honors project, plus coursework in one of the following tracks: <ul data-bbox="667 1734 1036 1839" style="list-style-type: none">• Discipline-Based Honors• Honors Research Minor

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Individualized Honors
Discipline-Based Honors	Students selecting the Discipline-Based Honors track will choose two honors courses from the HON-H 306 and HON-H 307 course offerings and complete an honors project. In addition, Discipline-Based Honors students will take advanced courses within their chosen major.
Honors Research Minor	Students selecting the Honors Research Minor track will choose two honors courses from the HON-H 306 and HON-H 307 course offerings and complete an honors project. In addition, Honors Research Minor students will earn research credits to work on independent research and an honors thesis through regular enrollment in HON-H 400.
Individualized Honors	Students selecting the Individualized Honors track will choose two honors courses from the HON-H 306 and HON-H 307 course offerings and complete an honors project. In addition, Individualized Honors students will complete a unique program defined by the Honors Program Director and the appropriate faculty member(s) to achieve their individual academic goals.
University Honors Fellow	Students who complete both University Honors Minor and University Honors Scholar coursework will receive the distinction of University Honors Fellow.

Tier I Honors Courses

HON-H 103 Honors Seminar: Common Intellectual Experience I (3-6 cr.) P:

Admission to the Honors Program. A skills course emphasizing writing, reading, speaking, thinking skills, collaborative learning, diversity, research, and the use of technology in an academic setting. Readings and discussion of texts-in-common selected by Honors faculty and studied in preparation for possible project presentation at the Mid-East Honors Conference in the spring. Ordinarily taken during the first semester of study at IU Southeast. Part one of the required two-semester seminar sequence for Tier One students.

HON-H 104 Honors Seminar: Common Intellectual Experience II (3-6 cr.) P:

Admission to the Honors Program. Continuation of H 103. Builds on skills attained in the first semester with continued reading and discussion of texts-in-common. Students will begin to envision, research, and refine projects for possible presentation at the Mid-East Honors Conference in the spring. Ordinarily taken during the second semester of study at IU Southeast. Part two of the required two-semester seminar sequence for Tier One students.

Tier I & II Honors Courses

HON-H 306 Multidisciplinary Seminar in the Humanities and Social Sciences (3-6 cr.) P: Admission to the Honors Program or permission of the Honors Program Director.

Topic varies with the instructor and semester. Possible topics include Art as Literature;

Death and Dying; Utopias through History. May be repeated for up to 18 credit hours.

HON-H 307 Multidisciplinary Seminar (3-6 cr.) P: Admission to the Honors Program or permission of the Honors Program Director. Topic varies with the instructor and semester. Topics will include those outside the humanities and social sciences. May be repeated for up to 18 credit hours.

HON-H 400 Honors Research Minor Seminar (1 cr.) Required seminar for Tier Two students on the Honors Research Minor track. Honors seminars will be a forum for discussion of each student's research along with larger issues such as research strategies, publication, and ethics. May be repeated for up to 4 credit hours.

HON-H 495 Honors Project Seminar (1 cr.) Required seminar for Tier Two students on the Individualized Honors Track. Students will be mentored and guided to bring their projects to completion. May be repeated for up to 4 credit hours.