

International Photography Contest

Office of International Programs, IU Southeast

Contest Guidelines and Rules

1. Entrants submitting photos for the contest must have an official connection with IU Southeast, either as a student, faculty, or staff member. Study abroad participants and international students are particularly encouraged to participate in this contest.
2. Photography entries must be the original work of the entrant and must be photographs taken outside the United States. The entrant must hold the copyright to the photo submission.
3. Entries must be in print format (no digital, slide, or video entries), unmounted, and on 5x7 photo paper. Eligible participants may submit up to a maximum of four entries.
4. Each print entry must carry, on the reverse side:
 - a) title of work;
 - b) complete name of photographer;
 - c) when and where the photograph was taken (if photograph was taken on a study abroad program, please indicate the name of the study abroad program as well).
5. Each print must be accompanied by an attached typed paragraph about the subject of the photo and why it is meaningful to the photographer.
6. All entries must be accompanied by an official entry form, completed and signed by the entrant.
7. Entrants may submit photos in either of the following categories:
 - a) People category
 - b) Places category
8. Winners in each category will be chosen according to Critics' Choice and People's Choice and an indefinite number of "honorable mention" awards will be made for each category. One award maximum will be awarded per entrant. Winners may be contacted and asked for more information about the winning entries. Winners may also be asked to submit, if possible, a digital version of the photograph. Winners will receive a gift package of items relating to international travel photography.
9. By signing the entry form and submitting it, entrants are agreeing to grant the IU Southeast Office of International Programs license for use of the photographs in displays related to the contest and in IU Southeast printed and electronic publications. Submitted photographs become the property of the IU Southeast Office of International Programs and may be displayed or reproduced, including in print/card form for a campus scholarship fundraising program. The entrant will be fully credited in all such displays and publications. Entrants will retain full rights to use the image in any other manner.
10. Entries will be judged on artistic expression, creativity and originality, the quality of the image, and the extent to which the image evokes specific contest theme(s) or titles (when appropriate). All decisions of the judges are final. The contest organizers reserve the right to disqualify entries which do not conform to the stated contest rules and criteria.

11. Entries should not be subject to any digital manipulation (Photoshop or other) other than cropping or adjusting lighting to correct for over or underexposure. What we see in the photo should be what the photographer saw in the camera.
12. Deadline for entries: Monday, November 11, 2008. Judging will be completed and winners notified electronically thereafter.
13. If you have questions, please contact Dr. Frank Wadsworth at fwadsw@ius.edu or Dr. Charles Pooser at clpooser@ius.edu.
14. Entries should be submitted to the Director of International Programs at the address below:
