

By clicking “Confirm” to schedule your class(es), you are entering into a legally binding contract in which you acknowledge and agree to pay all tuition and fees assessed to your bursar account. This includes accepting responsibility for any additional costs related to your enrollment at Indiana University including, but not limited to, room, dining and other housing charges, meals, parking passes and/or fines, library fines, and any other departmental or college costs.

You understand that if you allow your bursar account to become delinquent, University services such as future registration, release of transcripts, the conferral of your degree and/or diploma, and other certifications will be encumbered until such time as your account is paid in full. In addition, you understand that Indiana University may refer your past due account for collection, report your delinquency to the credit bureau system, and/or may authorize legal action against you for the collection of this debt. You agree to be liable for all collection fees, not to exceed 33.33% of the original balance, plus any court and/or attorney fees resulting from the enforcement of this agreement (as allowed under Indiana Code §21-14-2-11), necessary for the collection of any amount not paid when due. Any collection fees stated above are in addition to the principal, fees, and interest due on the account.

You understand and agree that if you leave any Indiana University campus with an unpaid balance, you authorize the University and/or its agents, including attorneys and collection agencies, to contact you via cellular telephone and/or all forms of electronic technology (to include text messaging and e-mail) to collect such outstanding debt, unless you notify the agent in writing to cease electronic/cellular communication.
