The IUS Women’s and Gender Studies committee continued its efforts to reenergize and expand the interdisciplinary Women’s and Gender Studies minor and certificate programs, by recruiting and mentoring students for the IU WGS Undergraduate Conference, sponsoring various events, updating and expanding the course list, and updating the WGS web page. We organized and hosted the 22nd Annual IU Women’s and Gender Studies Undergraduate Conference, which was held on April 9th 2010, with the theme: “Talking Gender: Conversations about Culture, Sexuality, and Power.” At the conference we had active participation from six IU campuses, including over forty-five undergraduate presentations, numerous faculty moderators, welcoming remarks from Chancellor Patterson-Randles, Dean Wyandotte, and Professor Christa Zorn, and a keynote address by Dr. Dawn Heinecken from the University of Louisville.
