

Exercise 21

Plagiarism

The quotation below is from an article by Joanna M. Burkhardt. Read the original quotation. Selections 1 through 7 are ways in which someone might use this information in a term paper. Which of these constitute plagiarism, and which are acceptable? Compare the examples that follow, and decide whether they are or are not examples of plagiarism. Be ready to explain your answer. Original quotation:

Library literature offers wide-spectrum coverage on planning and moving libraries. Authors offer visions of what might be, practical implementation suggestions, or explicit instructions for specific situations. Every move is different and offers its own set of challenges. Planning and moving into a new library can be a nightmare with long-range challenges, or a sweet dream of perfect coordination and timing.*

Selection 6

In the literature about libraries there are plenty of articles on planning and moving libraries. Writers of these articles offer futuristic, practical, or explicit instructions for moving libraries. Planning and moving a library can be a nightmare or a good dream. (Burkhardt, 1998)

Selection 7

Moving into a new library takes much planning and forethought. The literature is full of articles of practical and theoretical advice regarding this topic. Each situation is different and must be handled according to the specifics of the location. Creating a new library may be very easy or very hard. (Burkhardt, 1998)
